We know that nowadays students (21) _____ from test stress, and there are a few of the biggest causes. First, it is important to try your best and study hard, but you may push yourself too much to get a high grade, and pressure can be hard to deal (22) _____. Second, many schools want to show high test grades from their students to prove that they are doing a good job of educating them. Therefore, they have high (23) _____ for the teachers, who then have high expectations for the students. In addition, most parents want to see great school reports, and they can start pushing their children when test time comes around. Moreover, if you had a (24) _____ time with a test in the past, or if you have done poorly on one or more tests, you could feel anxious about the next one. Finally, sometimes other students can spread rumors (tin đồn) about a test, or you might hear things from older friends and siblings. Rumors like "That teacher's tests are totally (25) _____ to pass!" can make you a lot much nervous.

II. Read the text and do the tasks that follow. (1.25 pts)

Bau Truc pottery items are made from clay from the Quao River mixed with sand. Clay is collected from the river only once a year, each lasting for half a month. Clay is taken more or less depending on the ability of each person. In the clay collecting season, local people try to take as much clay as they can to store, for use in the entire year. Currently, people in Bau Truc pottery village still make pottery items in the traditional way. They do not use the wheel but the craftsmen have to turn around the products. The potters shape their products by skillful hands and feet around a pole-round pillar, rather than on the wheel. From this step, silky clay block initially gradually forms a smooth rounded hollow blocks, then the formation of flower vases, or water pots. Bau Truc's craftsmen use wet cloths to make the product surface smooth. These items are decorated with seashells, snails or hand-made paintings featuring the daily life of Bau Truc's people.
